

AmPopMusic.com provides a wide variety of learning tools for general music students and teachers. With AmPopMusic, students can learn about the evolution and development of the wide range of American popular music styles - everything from country & western to blues to rap. For teachers, it provides lecture outlines, visual presentations, testing question banks, and a wide range of audio and video examples for in-class and out-of-class study.

The banner features the AmPopMusic logo and navigation links: Student Engagement, Testimonials, Demo, Get Started, Contact, GROUP REGISTRATION, and LOGIN. The main text reads: "AmPopMusic: Online, Interactive, Etext." Below this, it states: "This course in American Popular Music History brings reading, listening, watching, and testing together in a unique learning environment." A smaller text block says: "Whether you are in a class of one or 100, AmPopmusic can help de students and instructors desire to achieve." On the right, there is a photo of a smiling man wearing headphones.

AmPopMusic provides

Better, more engaging experiences for both students and teachers

Easy to access reading, listening, viewing, and testing materials

Intuitively organized audio & video examples

Access on any smart device: desktop, laptop, tablet, and phone

Features

-  Nine study units; 120 chapters
-  Over 125 pages of study questions in pdf format
-  Over 1,600 audio and video examples, organized by genre and time periods
-  Printable styles charts, crossword puzzles, and assignment pages
-  Dozens of self-grading practice and listening tests
-  Ready-to-go visual lecture aids

This block displays several screenshots of the AmPopMusic interface. It includes a "Study Unit Information" page for "Ch. 1: The Roots of Country", a "Country & Western Music Puzzle A" crossword puzzle, and a "Listening to Jazz Styles" practice test. The practice test screen says: "Welcome to the 'Listening to Jazz Styles' Practice Test. Twelve audio/video questions will be presented. These randomized questions will cover several styles of jazz: New Orleans, Early Chicago, Big Band, Bop, Cool, Free and Fusion. Click the 'Start Quiz' button to proceed." The bottom right corner of the practice test screen shows "© 2010 LR Dan Publishing" and a "START QUIZ" button.

Learn more and request a trial account at www.ampopmusic.com/contact